HITN Gathers Personnel to Record a Christmas Messages

The message includes a few words from HITN's CEO and his team.

With the beginning of the holiday season, all personnel from the New York office gathered in front of the cameras to record a traditional Christmas message.

During the recording session, Mike D. Nieves, President and CEO of Hispanic Information & Telecommunications Network (HITN), emphasized the importance of this message as the only moment for our audience to visualize the people working in the channel.

“I'm proud to showcase the wonderful people at HITN that work hard every day to air the quality programming our audience tunes in to,” said Mr. Nieves.

Recording a Christmas message allows HITN personnel to be part of a promo that serves as a recap for the company's achievements during the year.
