HITN CELEBRATES WIN AT THE NY EMMY AWARDS

HITN, the leading Spanish-language public media network, was recognized at the 67th Annual New York Emmy Awards, highlighting its excellence in public media.

BROOKLYN, NY –HITN-TV, Hispanic Information and Telecommunications Network, is thrilled to announce that it has won a prestigious New York Emmy Award at the 67th Annual ceremony. This recognition reinforces HITN’s commitment to delivering outstanding Spanish-language programming that educates, informs, and inspires audiences.

The award-winning piece and its respective category is:

- Human Interest Content – Spanish
  - Puerto Rican Heritage Month: Ramón & Irmgard

“We are deeply honored to receive this award,” said Michael D. Nieves, President and CEO of HITN. “This recognition reflects the hard work, talent, and dedication of our entire staff. We remain committed to creating culturally relevant content that resonates with our audience and fosters greater understanding.”

HITN’s Emmy award underscores the network’s dedication to presenting insightful coverage on topics that hold significance for the Hispanic community, solidifying its role as a trusted media source. Through high-quality and engaging programming, HITN continues to bridge diverse communities and elevate essential voices and stories within the Hispanic community.

The New York Emmy Awards gala was a celebration of excellence in television, and HITN's win highlights the network's position as a leader in Spanish-language broadcasting.
